2 Corinthians Series
Walk by Faith not Sight

2 Corinthians 5:1-21

Paul's friends in the city of Corinth were discouraged. Everywhere they looked, they saw sad and scary things.

"People are so mean to us," said Nyssa.

"They are mean to each other, too," said Atreus.

"Sometimes I just want to hide out in our church," said Leo.

Then they got a letter from their friend, Paul. "Dear Friends, don't trust what you see. Don't look at things with your human eyes."

Atreus frowned. "But don't we always see using our eyes?"

They kept reading. "Instead," Paul wrote, "look through God's eyes. See others how Jesus would see them."

"Hmm," said Nyssa. "Jesus loves everyone. So if we look at everyone with God's eyes, we should love them, too."

"That makes things a lot less scary!" said Leo. "Let's go share God's love!"

Braille is a type of writing that blind people use to read! Since blind people cannot see with their eyes, they use their fingers to feel the bumps. The way the bumps sit on the page stands for different letters.

Using the Braille Alphabet, write your first and last name in the spaces below.

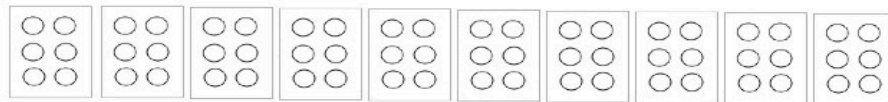

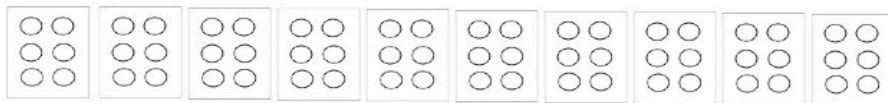

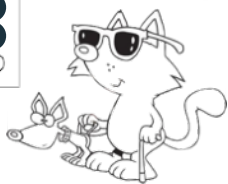

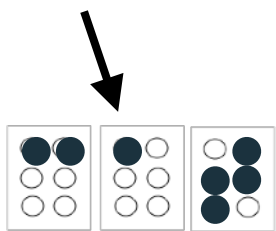

The Braille Alphabet

EXAMPLE:

This one spells "CAT."

Fill in the circles to make the letters!

Well Gee Whiz!

We learn how to trust God by hearing God's word, through prayer, and also by connecting with others who care about us.

Try it At Home

Play a trust game with your parent(s) or guardian(s). Tie a blindfold to cover your eyes. Have your parent or other trusted friend guide you through your home (or even someplace new).
