Luke 15:1-32

Jesus told the people, "Everyone is important to God, no matter what."

One man raised his hand. "But what if people don't listen to God?"

Jesus told them a story. "A son asked his father for his inheritance, his portion of his family's money. Then he went far away from home. He wasted the money on terrible things. Soon he had nothing left. He had no food. To survive, he had to eat the pea pods a farmer feeds to pigs. Thinking that his father's servants ate better than that, he finally he decided to go home."

"I bet his father was really angry about what he did," said a woman.

"The father wasn't angry. He was so excited that he ran to hug his son," Jesus said.

The crowd was amazed.

"So you see," Jesus said, "we can always turn back to God. No matter what we've done, God is full of joy to be with us again!"
