Acts 15:1-18

When the church was new, people argued a lot.

Some said, "People have to follow all of God's laws. Then they'll be good enough for Jesus."

The laws said they had to eat certain things. They had to wear certain things. They had to do certain things to their bodies.

Others said, "People don't have to do all those things to be good enough for Jesus."

They argued back and forth. Back and forth.

Finally, Peter said, "Jesus' love isn't about lots of laws. We can't be good enough for Jesus no matter what we do. Jesus died for everyone no matter what."

For Everyone

Really what it means - everyone. God loves everyone. Period!
