SEASON OF EASTER

Galatians 3:1-9, 23-29

When the church was new, people were not sure how to follow Jesus.

"I have always followed all God's rules. Do I still need to do that?" asked a Jewish man.

"I don't know God's rules," said a Greek woman. "Do I need to follow them?"

Another woman asked, "Do I need to do different things because I am a woman?"

A man said, "If my servant wants to follow Jesus, what should he do?"

Paul helped people to learn a new way. "There are no special rules," he said. "Everyone who loves Jesus is God's child. It doesn't matter if you are a man or a woman. Or Jewish or Greek. Or a servant or not. All God's children are equal."

The people smiled. "That makes sense!" they said.

Nice Quote!

Being one with God is easy,
all you need to do is turn and
look at the person beside you,
and then love them as your brother.
