

Life in Christ, Vol. 68 Issue 6 June, 2024

Happy Pride, Christ Lutheran! June is a nationally recognized month where we celebrate and lift up LGBTQ+ Pride and all the varied gifts, experiences, and voices that our LGBTQ+ siblings bring to our world and our communities.

As a Reconciling in Christ (RIC) community, since 2009!, we rejoice in this opportunity to surround our LGBTQ+ siblings with love and support.

Pride Month is also a great time to advocate for the ongoing inclusion, equal opportunity, and justice for the LGBTQ+ community. This involves paying attention- to the issues that matter most to members of this community, inviting others into “the know,” and offering our support financially, and in word and deed towards these causes.

So here’s something you should know:

On May 1, 2024, the United Methodist General Conference voted to remove the United Methodist Church’s ban on the ordination of “self-avowed practicing” LGBTQ+ clergy. And on May 2, 2024, they voted to eliminate in the denomination’s Social Principles that “the practice of homosexuality... is incompatible with Christian teaching.”

These are historic votes and results to come out of the United Methodist Church and represent a move towards greater support, inclusion, and affirmation of LGBTQ+ individuals of the Methodist denomination. The General Conference would be akin to our Churchwide Assembly and is a meeting of representatives from all the congregations to do the business of the church and make decisions as a denominational body. The decisions out of May 1st and 2nd reportedly overturn long-held positions going back to 1972 and 1984.

The Evangelical Lutheran Church in America (ELCA), of which our congregation is a part, voted in a similar historical fashion in 2009, where the Churchwide Assembly voted, “to open the ministry of the church to gay and lesbian [now more appropriately, LGBTQ+] pastors and other professional workers living in committed relationships.” The 2009 Assembly voted to adopt a new Social Statement, entitled, “Human Sexuality: Gift and Trust,” which had widespread reflections on sexuality as a whole, including, but not limited to that of LGBTQ+ persons. In addition,

“...the assembly also approved a resolution committing the church to find ways for congregations that choose to do so to ‘recognize, support and hold publicly accountable life-long, monogamous, same gender relationships’...The actions here change the church's policy, which previously allowed gays and lesbians into the ordained ministry only if they remained celibate.”

As a seminarian in 2009, I remember feeling this impact pretty readily at the seminary as the seminary supported those that were serving in congregations for internships at a time of historic doctrinal change. I remember knowing that this decision was deeply contentious and troubling for some. And still for others was long overdue and in keeping with a Lutheran understanding of the Bible and where God's heart would be.

My heart goes out to the United Methodist Church's members, leadership, and governing bodies as they navigate this important time of transition. I invite you to join me in praying for them, for next steps, for compassion and understanding for one another, and intentionality around welcome, inclusion, and celebration of our LGBTQ+ siblings. And I also invite you to join me in praying for all LGBTQ+ folks and particularly those connected to the Methodist church that they would feel the whole-hearted warmth of their Godly belovedness and the support in word and deed of their siblings of faith.

Mountain Sky Area Bishop Karen Oliveto, the UMC's first openly gay and married bishop, said,

"Today, we celebrate this historic vote," she said. "Tomorrow, we will continue to work together. To learn from one another. To stand with one another. To continue to widen the circle so that those on the margins of church and society can find a home."

"Draw the Circle Wide"

Chorus:

Draw the circle wide, draw it wider still.
Let this be our song: no one stands alone.
Standing side by side, draw the circle, draw the circle wide...

Verse:

Let the dreams we dream be larger
Than we've ever dreamed before

Let the dream of Christ be in us
Open every door!

Our school year will come to an end on Tues, June 18th. We will honor our friends that are going to Kindergarten with a special graduation ceremony just for them at 10:30am in the Sanctuary. Then we will celebrate everyone at our End of Year Program in the Social Hall at 11:30am. We will have cake on the yard and school will close at 12:30pm.

We will be closed for Juneteenth on 6/19 and closed for staff work days on 6/20 & 6/21 to prepare for our summer session which will start on Mon 6/24.

Not only does Simply Giving make giving to CLC easier for you, it also makes life much easier for our weekly volunteer Counters, and our Treasurer. If this program sounds like something you'd be interested in, please reach out to me at church or by email: mattatkei@aol.com. I can get you set up in a matter of minutes.

Another word from Stewardship:

Stewardship is not just about treasures; it is also about time and talent. If you have ever considered getting involved in one of the many ministries at Christ Lutheran, and don't have a lot of spare time, perhaps one of our featured ministries would be a good fit for you. Additional helping hands are always valued and appreciated. Below is a brief summary of the duties of Sunday Greeters.

Ben Elliott is graduating from Millikan High School this month. During his time at Millikan, Ben played on the varsity basketball team. His plans for the summer will keep him busy: he'll be working, vacationing in Yosemite with his family, honing his video game skills and of course, playing lots of basketball. While doing all of this, Ben will be preparing to start the fall semester at California State University, Long Beach.

Maggie Fitzpatrick in her own words, "After two long and intensive years, I have finally graduated with my master's in early childhood education from California State University, Long Beach. Through many research assignments, parent workshops, curriculum planning and advocacy projects, endless reading of articles, completing an intensive comprehensive exit exam, and many more requirements of the courses, I graduated on May 19th at Angels Stadium. I will continue to work at Christ Lutheran Preschool for the time being. I absolutely love being in the preschool classroom and am excited to implement many of the ideas from my coursework from the past two years."

Stephanie Murray received her single subject credential in social science from California State University, Long beach. She was a student teacher of 8th grade history at Warner Middle School and loved it. Stephanie's goal is to become a middle school teacher.

Brianna Peralta just received a Master of Business and Professional Communications degree from Bellevue University. While working to complete this stage of her education Brianna was also a Campus Attractions Lead and Trainer at Disney's California Adventure. In Nov 2023, she moved to a new role as a Guest Correspondence Associate supporting the Disneyland Resorts in California and Hawaii. Brianna will continue to work for the Disney Company for the foreseeable future but her most exciting moments will come while she's wedding planning! Brianna recently became engaged to Brad Croes, one of CLC's long time members and A/V technicians. Congrats to Brad and Bree.

Hannah Rodrigues is graduating from the University of Southern California with a Bachelor of Architecture and a minor in Urban Sustainable Planning. At USC, she served as a member and Vice-President of Alpha Rho Chi, USC's professional architecture fraternity, and has been awarded Global Scholar Distinction for her design work completed while studying abroad in Barcelona last spring. This summer, she plans to take some time to relax with friends and family and will stay in Los Angeles to begin working at an architecture firm while studying for licensing exams to become a licensed architect.

Annette Rodrigues In December of 2023, Annette graduated from California State University, Long Beach (CSULB) with a Master of Science degree in Gerontology. Annette also holds a bachelor's degree in human development and a certificate in gerontology. During the course of study, Annette earned the certifications of Certified Montessori Dementia Care Professional (CMDCP) and Certified RCFE (Residential Care Facility for the Elderly) Administrator. She is excited to share the news that her handbook, Montessori-Based Activities for Alzheimer's and Dementia: Handbook for Implementing Activities in an Adult Day Care Program, has been recently published and is available at Barnes & Noble. This handbook is a result of her Thesis Directed Research Project for the MSG program at Cal State University, Long Beach. She is also pleased to share that the handbook has been awarded the Outstanding Graduate Project award for 2023-2024 by the CSULB College of Health and Human Services. (cont.)

Annette recently began working at the CSULB Research Foundation as the Program Manager for the Center for Successful Aging. With a background in gerontology and a diverse set of skills and experiences, Annette brings a unique perspective to her work at the Center, allowing her to provide valuable insights and effective solutions for diverse older adult populations. As Program Manager, she is committed to supporting students, faculty, and community organizations to deepen their understanding of aging and address the challenges that face the aging population. As an alumna of CSULB with a strong appreciation for education and research, Annette is particularly dedicated to working with students in a variety of academic disciplines with the intent to equip the future workforce with the knowledge and skills necessary to effectively engage and assist the older adult population.

Annette would like to thank her family. Their support and encouragement of her educational goals as she returned to school have been both unwavering and inspiring. A special word of acknowledgment and gratitude to her husband, a man who has always been by her side supporting her in any way that he can so that she may fulfill her own goals and dreams.
